News from Various Divisions—Election of Officers, etc.

ALBERT C. BLAISDELL.

Sketch of the Inspector-General—Prominent in the Old Army and an Organizer of Many Camps.

Albert C. Blaisdell is a native of Lowell, and derives his right of membership from his father, Charles B. Blaisdell, an old and respected member of the Middlesex bar, who served nearly three years during the war of the rebellion in Co. I, 38th Mass., and was discharged from the service by reason of a gunshot wound.

He was educated in the public schools of Lowell, and prepared for a legal profession in the office of his father. But an unexpected vacancy occurred in a grammar school in Lowell which changed the course of his life, and he took up the study of law. After teaching in the public schools for several years, he accepted a call to become teacher of mathematics, etc., in the Lowell Commercial College, and continued in this position until August, 1885, when he bought the school, and immediately thereafter sold an equal interest to Mr. E. Kimball, of Lowell, and a partnership was formed known as the Lowell Commercial College, which has continued until the present time.

ALBERT C. BLAISDELL, INSPECTOR-GENERAL.

In the Sons of Veterans he has always taken a high rank, both in the Camp and Division work. He joined Admiral Farragut Camp in 1888, was elected Captain, and was installed in January following. The affairs of the Camp were in a bad financial condition, and during his term as Captain the affairs were straightened, and he placed the Camp on a good financial basis. In Division work he has established a strong reputation for cool, faithful work, not simply doing his work, but assisting his associates wherever he could.

The Camps at Milford, Haverhill and Littleton were mustered into the Order by him. In installation work he has been successful in every demand. In 1890-91, he served as Division Inspector, and his work in this Department received high praise from the National Headquarters, and his system of inspection was recommended for adoption by Inspector-General Hall, since Commander-in-Chief of the Order. In 1891 he was elected Major of the Massachusetts Division, receiving 100 votes to 22 for his nearest competitor. In 1892 at Milford, he was elected Senior Vice Division Commander without serious opposition, receiving 194 votes to one against. In 1893 elected unanimously as Division Commander, and in 1894 re-elected.

TO SOLDIERS' SONS.

Earnshaw Camp, 89, Dayton, O., Entertains 400 Young Men Eligible to Membership. Earnshaw Camp has been preparing for some time past to give a banquet and reception to the sons of veterans residing in the vicinity of Dayton, and who have joined the Order. John H. Swift, Adjutant-General, Third Congressional District, has been very active in the work of this Camp. On the evening of Nov. 23, this banquet was given.

Among those present were: Gen. W. E. Bundy, Commander-in-Chief; Adj. Gen. H. V. Spelman; Col. Don C. Gamble, Commander of the Ohio Division; Frank O. Wilkinson, Past Junior Vice Commander; Chief W. T. Crutchfield, Past Division Council; Judge Advocate Gen. O'Brien; Dr. A. C. Messinger and Maj. J. J. Howe; of Xenia; David G. Farrel and James K. Stewart, of Lockland; Capt. Allabaugh and Schenck, of Vandalia.

The address of welcome was delivered by O. B. Brown, Col. Don C. Cable responded to the toast, "The Ohio Division." Harry Weidner spoke on "Eligibility to Membership." Adj. Gen. Spelman spoke of Earnshaw Camp being one of the latter camps of the Order, and of the duty of the sons of soldiers over to their country in perpetuating the spirit for which their fathers fought and died. Commander-in-Chief Bundy was the next speaker. His subject was "Our Order." Other speakers followed.

THE DIVISIONS.

CONNECTICUT. Monday evening, Nov. 19, Wm. H. Mallory Camp, 11, entertained visiting brothers from Nathan Hale Camp, 1, New Haven, and John M. Simms Camp, 49, of Stamford, besides Capt. Cunningham, of Atlantic City, N. J., and Private Lewis, of Elmira, N. Y. Many members of Elias Howe, Jr., Post, 3, were present, and contributed much to the evening's pleasure. Nomination of officers for next year was very spirited, and it is expected that there will be a number of friendly contests when election comes around. Many of the brothers were heard to advance during the evening. Capt. Lincoln, of New Haven; Capt. Cunningham, of New Jersey, and Past Capt. Stein, of Bridgeport. After discussing the various topics of the evening, and in which our Order might be benefited, they all adjourned to the banquet table, and so far as known all did themselves justice.

Gen. George A. Austin Camp, 43, of Middletown, is going to have a social and bazaar, and wants to receive the support of the whole Division. This Camp has had many things to discourage it and prevent it from getting ahead in the world, but it has turned out one of the finest Division Commanders we have ever had in the person of Ben. R. Singleton.

Already the political bee is buzzing in many quarters, but it is altogether too early in the season to predict with any certainty, but it is thought that Junior Vice Commander Buntin will go higher this year.

Capt. Ford, of Middletown, may receive some recognition from the Division this year. The article in General Orders in regard to retaining a good Captain is of vast importance, and although the writer believes in rotation in office, at this time don't let a good Captain go for any uncertainty.

Babies

and rapidly growing children derive more benefit from Scott's Emulsion, than all the rest of the food they eat. Its nourishing powers are felt almost immediately. Babies and children thrive on Scott's Emulsion when no other form of food is assimilated.

Scott's Emulsion

stimulates the appetite, enriches the blood, overcomes wasting and gives strength to all who take it. For Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, Bronchitis, Weak Lungs, Emaciation, Consumption, Blood Diseases and All Forms of Wasting. Send for pamphlet. Free.

C. S. Russell Camp, 26, of Derby, gave the war drama "A Noble Knight," at Sterling Opera House last week. Nearly all the parts were taken by members of the Camp. A feature of the play was the presentation of a free-hand crayon portrait of Col. Charles S. Russell, from whom the Camp was named, by Mrs. Russell. The Camp responded by presenting a beautiful bouquet of flowers to Mrs. Russell, the late Colonel's widow.—C. Fayer Sherman, Division Correspondent.

MAINE.

Copy of the Proceedings of the 12th Annual Encampment of the Division of Maine, and also of the last Encampment of the Commander-in-Chief, will be forwarded to Camps in a short time. The delay has been occasioned by the non-arrival of Commander-in-Chief proceedings.

RHODE ISLAND.

Concerning paragraph X of General Order the Division Commander states that the Division Council on Nov. 3, 1894, unanimously passed resolutions respecting the removal of the Commander-in-Chief to recall and amend erroneous portions of such paragraph, and if by any possibility failing such action, to appeal to the Council-in-Chief, and notify the Council-in-Chief in the premises. The reasons suggested for such recall, etc., were, in brief: That the Commander-in-Chief, by broad and arbitrary action, had caused the complete United States Army regulation uniform, as provided in the official United States Army Regulations, to be worn without restraint by all members of the Order; that the suggested dispensations are unnecessary and illegal, since not provided for in the Constitution, Rules and Regulations; that Divisions exclusively now regulate their military organization, and that, therefore, the Commander-in-Chief has no power to issue any orders—whatever suggestions he may offer—altering the uniform or regulating the military organization of Divisions. Military organization in this Division has never varied from Camp membership, and the Sons of Veterans Guards having been abolished, Camp 10, formerly Co. A, of the Grand Division, remains as before. At the next Division Encampment the Division Commander will present a proper recommendation upon this subject, based upon the regular organization in the United States Army, and he suggests in the meantime that Camps perfect and equip themselves as rapidly as possible in order to be ready in the United States Army regulation uniform, as heretofore, to avail themselves of a battalion and regimental organization.

During the last quarter Camps 4 and 5 each mustered three recruits; Camp 2, two, and Camps 10, 12 and 19, each one; Camp 9 gained two, and Camp 13, one; Camp 10, one; Camp 12, one; Camp 13, one; Camp 14, one;
